

Nonprofit & Business Accounting

FPLG's accounting team understands the unique financial reporting requirements of both nonprofit organizations and social enterprises.

As experienced accountants, CPAs and tax attorneys, we can assist you in ensuring your nonprofit organization or business is in the best financial position possible, able to quickly and easily access the information you need to flourish.

Our bookkeeping and accounting services are customized to your needs, no matter your size or location.

Bookkeeping and Accounting

Maintaining accurate financial records is one of the most important fiduciary responsibilities of a nonprofit organization. The rules are complicated, and can be immensely confusing. No one understands the complexity and nuance of nonprofit bookkeeping quite like the accounting professionals at FPLG. We have the knowledge and relevant expertise to ensure that your financial records are accurate, timely, and in full compliance with state and federal accounting rules.

Financial Reporting & Guidance

Our experienced CPAs, CFOs and tax attorneys are able to provide timely, accurate and proactive financial guidance, reflecting the latest developments and regulations promulgated by the Internal Revenue Service, and in compliance with generally accepted accounting principles. When it's time to report your financial activities to board members, grantors, and charity regulators, your financial statements and responses will have already been reviewed by a financial professional with expertise you can rely upon.
