Jaclyn is a pack leader.

She lives with 3 huskies, 1 cat and her husband of twenty-five years. Her sons are in college and family life can be hectic, but Jaclyn is unflappable. She brings that same levelheadedness to her leadership at For Purpose Law Group by mentoring our team while holding us accountable to our goals.

Jaclyn has worked with law firms for over 25 years. She devotes time on our operations team in order to increase efficiency and happiness of our team. Strategically improving workflows and workloads while implementing our business plan goals, aligning the vision of the business with our people. Some of her favorite days are gathering at the Level 10 meetings to collaborate on issues faced by the team, and collectively solving them.

Jaclyn was born in and resides in Connecticut. She graduated from Albertus Magnus College where she obtained a degree in Sociology. She is passionate about investing her time to help others. She has been an active Big Sister in the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Connecticut program for 3 years and a Business Mentor with Score Mentors for under a year.

When not leading our team or her family’s schedule, Jaclyn can often be found at a beach with a book or a camera in hand. She enjoys exploring new places, meeting new people and sharing experiences.
