Mina Vu serves as a Senior Associate at FPLG, and is a member of the firm's nonprofit and tax-exempt organizations and estate planning practice groups.

Ms. Vu began her career as general counsel for various start-ups and family-owned businesses by providing legal guidance and protection relating to general corporate matters, including forming corporations and limited liability companies, drafting and negotiating business contracts, and providing governance counsel. She later expanded her practice into representing parties in real estate transactions and community associations throughout California.

Outside the office, Ms. Vu enjoys traveling, learning foreign languages, and working as a real estate agent.

Albert Einstein once said, “Try not to become a man of success, but rather try to become a man of value. He is considered successful in our day who gets more out of life than he puts in. But a man of value will give more than he receives.” I believe this is one of the core philosophies for many nonprofits. I hope my representation will allow these organizations to thrive and bring value to their community.
