As FPLG's Human Resources, Culture & Wellness Manager, Monica Daloisio ensures that the heartbeat of the firm—its people—are supported, celebrated, and set up to thrive. She leads firmwide initiatives around recruiting, onboarding, retention, and employee engagement, working closely with leadership to shape a workplace culture rooted in connection, alignment, and purpose.

With extensive experience managing the full employee lifecycle, Monica brings a strategic lens to every stage of team development. From streamlining HR processes to cultivating a welcoming and inclusive environment, her work ensures that attorneys and staff alike feel valued, equipped, and empowered.

At FPLG, Monica plays a pivotal role in nurturing a culture that reflects the firm's values. Whether she's guiding a new hire through onboarding or supporting long-term professional growth, her mission is to ensure the people behind FPLG's impact feel seen and supported every step of the way.

Off the clock, Monica enjoys time with her family, practicing mindfulness, and discovering new ways to bring more wellness into the everyday.
