Natalie Ortiz is a Spanish speaking Senior Associate at FPLG in the litigation practice group. Ms. Ortiz received her bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, and obtained her J.D. from Thomas Jefferson School of Law in San Diego.

After starting her legal career in estate planning and post-death trust & estate administration, Ms. Ortiz went on to gain valuable experience in civil litigation at an insurance defense firm. She then returned to probate practice to focus on contested trust, estate and conservatorship matters.

Ms. Ortiz has previously served as a Court Appointed Attorney for the San Diego Probate Court, was on the board of directors of Probate Attorneys of San Diego, and volunteered with San Diego Volunteer Lawyer Program and Wills for Heroes. She currently serves as a volunteer mediator for the National Conflict Resolution Center, assisting in the resolution of disputes ranging from landlord-tenant issues to civil harassment.

Outside of work, Ms. Ortiz enjoys spending time with her husband and two young daughters
